Short Description

Your home, a safe and complete fitness cage and a body to work on. The perfect mix!

Tell us, how long have you been thinking about an investment like this to work your muscles from home?

A home gym is the dream of many athletes who have been going to the gym closest to their home for years and the truth is that a cage like the Full Heavy Duty is the perfect choice.

Unlike the more basic power racks, the Heavy Duty has a high pulley and low pulley, as well as a fixed bar for suspension training and dominoes.

Add a weight bench and a long bar and you have a complete workout for all muscle groups.

Description

Why you should buy the Titanium Strength 340PL Full Heavy Duty Power Cage?

Let's be honest: setting up a home gym costs money.
